

Quiz 5 Disposing of Hazardous Household Products

1. Some household products are so hazardous that you can't

- A. buy them.
- B. throw them in the garbage.
- C. use them.

2. Automotive products including _____ are hazardous.

- A. gas, oil and transmission fluid.
- B. gas and windshield washer fluid.
- C. gas and radiator fluid.

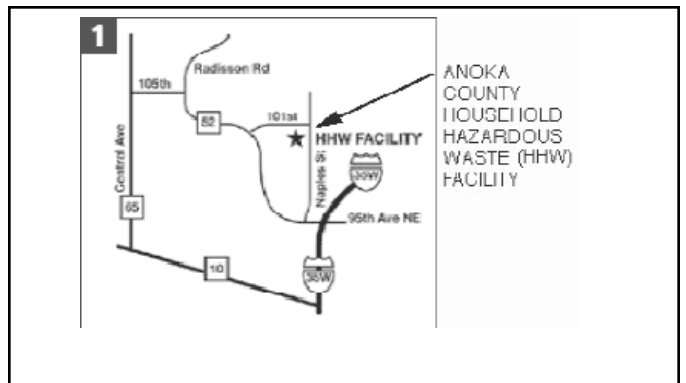

3. Lawn and garden products including _____ are hazardous.

- A. fertilizer
- B. weed and bug killers
- C. yard waste

4. Your _____ has a household hazardous waste collection site.

- A. city
- B. school
- C. county

5. When you take products to a household hazardous waste collection site, you should ...

- A. open them carefully.
- B. pack them carefully.
- C. read them carefully.

6. If the product is not in the original container you should

- A. label it clearly.
- B. leave the container open.
- C. mix it with other products.

7. When you put the box in your car, make sure it won't

- A. slide or stop over.
- B. close or tip over.
- C. slide or tip over.

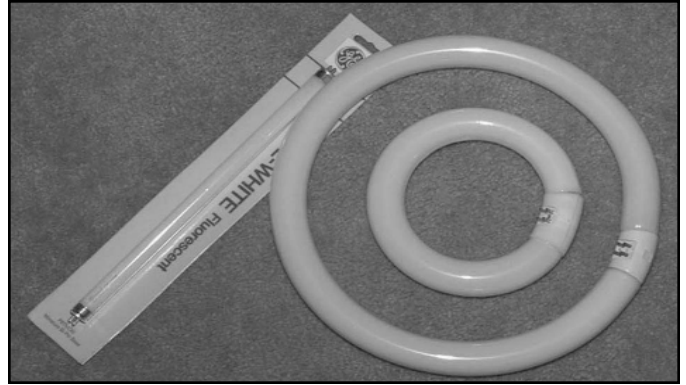

8. Bring your _____ for identification.

- A. driver's license
- B. credit card
- C. money

9. You must not throw _____ in the trash.

- A. pizza boxes
- B. fluorescent lights
- C. kitchen waste

10. You must not throw _____ in the trash.

- A. broken TVs
- B. broken toys
- C. broken furniture

