

Lesson 4 B

Choose the correct answer

1.
  - a. Jim said, "I am less tired today."
  - b. Jim said, "I am more tired today."
  - c. Jim said, "I was more tired yesterday."
2.
  - a. Susan said, "I live in Blaine."
  - b. Susan said, "Mary lived in Blaine."
  - c. Susan said, "Mary lives in Blaine."
3.
  - a. He said to me, "We have to go to work."
  - b. He said to me, "You have to go to work."
  - c. He said to me, "I have to go to work."
4.
  - a. She said to them, "You have to go to bed."
  - b. She said to him, "I have to go to bed."
  - c. She said to her, "We have to go to bed."
5.
  - a. She said to them, "I love him."
  - b. She said to her, "You love you."
  - c. She said to him, "I love you."
6.
  - a. He said to me. "I have a lot of money."
  - b. He said to me . "You need a lot of money."
  - c. He said to me. "I need a lot of money."
7.
  - a. The company said, "We pay high wages."
  - b. The company said, "We don't pay high wages."
  - c. The company said, "They pay high wages."
8.
  - a. She told her husband, "You drink too much."
  - b. She told her husband, "I drink too much."
  - c. She told her husband, "We drink too much."
9.
  - a. They said to the teacher, "You don't understand."
  - b. They said to the teacher, "We don't understand."
  - c. They said to the teacher, "He doesn't understand."
10.
  - a. Bob said, "I know the way to the store."
  - b. Bob said, "You know the way to the store."
  - c. Bob said, "I don't know the way to the store."
11.
  - a. Ann said to her boyfriend, "I'm sorry."
  - b. Ann said to her boyfriend, "You will be sorry."
  - c. Ann said to her boyfriend, "I will be sorry" 12.
  - a. I said, "I might not go to the party."
  - b. I said, "I could go to the party."
  - c. I said, "I can't go to the party."
13.
  - a. John said to me, "I'm going to walk home."
  - b. John said to me, "I'm going to drive home."
  - c. John said to me, "I'm not going to walk home."
14.
  - a. Mary said, "Hello!" to me.
  - b. Mary said, "Hello!" to her.
  - c. Mary said, "Hello!" to him.